

Building Bridges

a benefit concert to support one Syrian family's resettlement in Kingston

Please join us for an exciting evening of live music by some of our fine local talent, and a special premier performance by a group of traditional folk music players from Syria, all of whom are now living in Ontario.

Featuring...

Kingston Choral Society under the direction of Ian Juby

Open Voices Community Choir under the direction of Andy Rush

Traditional folk group Syrian Hope: Fahd Abou Zainedin (oud), Esmaeel Abou Fakher (bozoq), Anwar Al Aissami (violin), Hasan Wahab (nai), Muhannad Alkattan (tabla)

Eclectic musical duo Ocean Bound: Kristen English (voice) & Julien Bouchard (voice, guitar, percussion)

Jan LeClair (stradella accordion)

Clare Miller (piano)

Kyoko Ogoda (marimba)

John Lazarus (master of ceremonies)

Saturday, October 27, 2018 7:30pm

The Spire, 82 Sydenham Street, Kingston, ON

Pre-concert interview at 7:10pm with John Lazarus & Fahd Abou Zainedin

General admission tickets: adult $20; student $10

Advance tickets available at: Ardens Music, 1530 Bath Rd. and Tara Natural Foods, 81 Princess St.

Also online from EVENTBRITE, or by voice from Carole at 613.767.8970

Concert organized by the local Kingston private sponsorship group "Fresh Start for Refugees" (Carole Russell, coordinator).
Music program produced by John Rosseel. All performing artists and production volunteers are generously donating their time and talents in support of this project. Ticket proceeds (after production expenses) and all donations go directly to the family resettlement fund. Please help support this worthwhile initiative.

Photographic image copyright: locomotion.org.uk